THORNHAM is a pretty, conservation village situated within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The village mainly contains traditional stone fisherman's cottages and merchants' houses along with three excellent public houses, a thriving deli and café and a number of individual shops at Drove Orchards, which include Eric's award-winning Fish & Chip shop, Eric's Pizza Restaurant and Gurney's Fish Shed. A small natural harbour is still used by a handful of fisherman and there is easy access to miles of unspoilt sandy beaches.

The nearby village of Burnham Market (7 miles) is renowned for its range of individual shops and restaurants whilst King's Lynn (20 miles) offers High Street chains, leisure facilities and a mainline rail link to London King's Cross (97 minutes).
